

LOADING THE RELIEF TRAIN.

"World" Readers' Gifts Will Start
for the South To-Morrow.

Splendid Benefit Entertainment to Be Given To-Day.

Unless something now unforeseen happens "The World" relief train, with supplies of clothing, provisions and medicine for the cyclone victims and yellow fever sufferers at the South will leave Jersey City to-morrow afternoon. By the middle of next week the gifts which have been generously sent in by "World" readers will be distributed among the unfortunate who are in so great need of even the bare necessities of life.

This is the last day for receiving contributions, so that those who have anything to add to the general stock should send in their gifts at once. Everything must be sent before noon, as the doors of the freight cars will be closed and sealed, and will not be opened again until the train reaches its destination.

Many packages of clothing were received yesterday, together with gifts of money, which will be devoted to the purchase of groceries and provisions, which are in short supply in the stricken districts. Many collections are to be made to-day, and the money which is taken in at the grand benefit performance will be given to the Imperial Music Hall.

These performances will be a splendid entertainment. Those who attend will have the satisfaction of knowing that every penny of the dollar they pay for admission will go toward relieving the distresses of some poor starving sufferer at the South.

Among those who have volunteered their services for the occasion are the following well-known physicians:

Miss Mary Temple, Miss Lotte Collins, Miss Ellen Vackey, Edward Harrigan, Johnny Wild, Harrert Vernon, Kit Davis, Bell, Mrs. Anna Paquette, Bob Hilliard and the fine company of specialists of the Imperial.

The entertainment will be given under the stars, and the music, singing and dancing promises to be one of the most brilliant and enjoyable of the season.

Mr. Kraus, proprietor of the Music Hall, has given the use of the theater and his company, together with the additional attractions which are offered the price of the tickets, $1, seems very small.

Those who are interested will be directed to the purchase of the necessary of life, which will be forwarded by "The World's" Relief Train to the South.

MAY SUE FOR DIVORCE.

Suicide of Mrs. Blosse Reveals a Queer Matrimonial Complication.

As a sequel to the self-destruction of Mrs. Eva Lynch-Blosse in London, and the revelation of her husband's double life, Mrs. Nelle Temple Bowen Lynch-Blosse is likely to ask for a divorce from "Cappy" Edward Falconer Lynch-Blosse, of the Royal Horse Guards, and aide-de-camp to H. R. H. the Prince of Wales.

Mrs. Nelle Temple Bowen, who had been divorced from Bowen, met Capt. Lynch-Blosse in 1881, while she was living with her mother at a New York hotel. His suit was persistent, and they were married at Holy Trinity, Oct. 21, 1881. They lived for a time at the Adams House, Boston, and at the Metropolitan. Then they lived at Sharon, Mass. There they had trouble over an alleged valueless check, given by "Cappy" to a hotel-keeper.

Mrs. Nelle says she sold her jewels for $1,500 to "square" the matter, but her mother, on whom they had lived for seven weeks, would stand it no longer, and insisted that the Captain should do something towards the support of his wife.

The spunky bride left him. He followed her to New York and threatened to do something awful if she didn't leave. He was finally concluded to leave.

Mrs. Nelle did not know of the former marriage and divorce of her "Cappy."

The suicide of Mrs. Eva revealed it all.

It is known that the Captain had been with the Baroness Torphichen, daughter of Gen. Charles Edward Park (Gordon) of Scotland, and the couple got a divorce in January, 1881, in Scotland.

Mrs. Eva married Booth in New York, moved to London and terminated her second unhappy marriage by suicide.

EX-CLERK TURNS BURGLAR.

Barhn Had a Duplicate Key to the Drug Store.

Leroy Barhn, twenty-two years old, of 116 West Sixty-first street, was held in the Yorkville Police Court this morning. He was formerly a clerk in the drug-store of Kirby & Maloy. Fifty-eighth street and Ninth avenue, but was dismissed because suspected of theft. Since he left the store has been employed several times and valuable medicines and perfumery stolen.

Ernest Zeigler was instructed to sleep in the store. Early yesterday morning he found the city and was in a position in mist. Tools 6 o'clock the fog lifted for a little while, but then it settled down again and became thicker the next day, causing delays ranging from five minutes to an hour.

The fog appeared shortly after 1 o'clock and it required very little time to cover the city and was in a position in mist. Tools 6 o'clock the fog lifted for a little while, but then it settled down again and became thicker the next day, causing delays ranging from five minutes to an hour.

Barhn broke away, but was subsequently arrested. The ex-clerk had a duplicate key to the store.

THE PRATT ALIENATION SUIT.

Effort to Settle It—Mrs. Pratt, Et al. vs. Pratt, New Haven.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 3.—It is given out here that a meeting of the Pratt family has been held, and that the $50,000 suit brought by Mrs. Charles R. Pratt, Jr., against her husband's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth F. Pratt, for alienation of her husband's affections will probably be settled within a few days.

It is stated that Charles Pratt holds between alternatives. The first is to make reasonable terms as possible, and gain his wife back, while she will abandon her claims. The other alternative is divorce proceedings.

Mr. Pratt, Jr., has decided to lease or sell, if possible, his paternal residence on Whitney avenue, and remove from this city at once.

Two Burglars Held.

Joseph Fanning, alias Joseph Evans, and John McNaughton, alias Lambert, the two burglars caught by Policeman Fitzgerald while trying to gain an entrance into 1166 Broadway, were held for examination in the Jefferson Market Court to-day.
